In the Bible, God is not the three persons of the Godhead. God is numerically one God (Gal 3:20; James 2:19), but He dwells in three persons officially. We know that He dwells in the persons because Jesus taught us this fact through His incarnation.

We are told that “God was in Christ” (2 Cor 5:19), this, among others, is how we know that God dwells in the persons of the Father, The Son and the Spirit. This one God in the three persons is called the Divine Nature (2 Peter 1:4) and so we shall call Him.

Furthermore this God the Divine Nature, is also called the Father. So that when the word Father is used, it means the Father Divine Nature. Thus if were to say God the Father, it means the Father Divine Nature (Gal 1:3). But there is also the Person of the Father in which the Divine Nature officially dwells. The Bible used the word Father to sometimes mean just the Divine Nature without any reference to the person of the Father and then it uses the word Father to mean the Father Person (in whom the Divine Nature dwells).

So in this tract we shall layout verses from the Bible where the word “Father” means not the person of the Father but the Divine Nature, we will call this the Father Divine Nature to so indicate and we shall isolate verses where the word “Father” means the Divine Nature in the person of the Father specifically and indicate them under the heading Father Person. This is the pattern we shall follow.

This tract is written to encourage focus on the word Father in the Bible and to encourage close scrutiny and judgment on the matter by each individual as he studies the verses from his Bible. It is meant to heighten the consciousness about spiritual things and to develop discernment in the Scriptures.

May all who study be blessed in like manner.

Rev 3:5, 21.

Clearly Ps 89:26 is DIVINE FATHER NATURE, if taken as the expression of all men. But if it is a prophecy of Jesus Himself uttering those words, then it is Father Person.

Jesus is not the Person of the Father, so Isa 9:6 is obviously speaking about the Divine Father Nature.
